

AMAS.AERO is an innovative platform of cloud-based applications to solve daily compliance challenges faced by the aerospace industry. Our global standard in digitizing compliance is developed by leading subject matter experts.

AMAS “Standards and Regulations” offers comprehensive up to date compliance libraries e.g. EASA regulations and industry standards as web based application. On a regular basis, AeroEx, maintain the compliance libraries with amendments, revisions and directives as published by each responsible organization. AeroEx is responsible for the currency and accuracy of its content inputs to the compliance library in accordance with the officially published regulations and standards.

Features

- ✗ Easy access to your subscribed consolidated “Standards and Regulations” libraries (implementing regulation, acceptable means of compliance, guidance material and safety information bulletins)
- ✗ EASA compliance libraries suitable for your specific operation (Initial Airworthiness, Continuing Airworthiness, Aircrew, Air Operations, Third Country Operators, Air Traffic Management/Air Navigation Services, Airspace Usage Requirements, Standardised European Rules of the Air, Aerodromes). Further regulations on request
- ✗ Versions history, identification of differences and changes from the previous revision
- ✗ Personal notes and setting favorites to each standard and regulation
- ✗ Export function in excel
- ✗ Various search and filter functions
- ✗ Dashboard with “my notes”, “my favorites”, news section and full text search
- ✗ Company logo branded portal (white label)
- ✗ Responsive design (smartphones, tablets and PCs)
- ✗ Online ticket system
- ✗ Additional AMAS applications to extend the basic features

Contact us for more information and request an online demo. Purchase your easy to use AMAS “Standards & Regulations” application and choose your compliance libraries à la carte.

Stay compliant with AeroEx